Tsubaki introduces Akuma to the three heroes and tells him that he is a destined hero. At this time, Akuma feels he needs a weapon to defeat a strange creature which he sees in the distance. Then, Akuma and the three heroes arrive in a village, where they find more of the strange creatures. Akuma defeats a strange monster, but is slightly wounded in the process. He picks up a mysterious blade in the corner of the room, and is attacked by the strange creatures. Akuma manages to defeat the creatures and finds a ruined castle on top of a mountain. As Akuma searches the castle, he encounters many strange monsters and a samurai. The samurai introduces Akuma to a mysterious woman who tells him that he must take the blade to the end of the world to find the way to a lost world. As Akuma journeys, he fights and defeats numerous enemies, and eventually finds a strange forest. He meets a strange man named Tetsujin, who introduces Akuma to a strange blue-haired girl named Yumi. Tetsujin explains that the forest is home to a small animal world, where creatures have become immensely powerful due to the destruction of their home world. Tetsujin tells Akuma that the two worlds are connected, and his blade is the key to uniting them. Akuma is attacked by strange creatures, who wear armor made of strong metal. They call Akuma a "bird", and try to attack him. He defeats the creatures, but is defeated by a powerful, armored enemy named Magami. Magami and Akuma have a duel. The two battle fiercely, and Magami is killed by a blast from Akuma's weapon. Tsubaki tells Akuma that he is the last of his kind, and that he can choose to stay or return to his home world.
